FROM THE GROUND UP!

GROWING A COMMUNITY GARDEN WORKSHOP

DCH, 1810 N. Dupont St., Wilmington

Join DCH, UD Cooperative Extension, and the Delaware Urban Farm and Food Coalition to learn how to start your own community garden. This workshop will share more than 40 years of collective knowledge to guide you from start-up to a thriving garden. Partnering organizations will provide information on a diversity of resources, including how to obtain mini-grants, land, and water, as well as information on school gardens, pest and disease management, nutrition, and a complete how-to guide on starting a community garden. For more information, contact Ruth Arias at (302) 658-6262, ext. 113.

FOR MEDIA ONLY: For additional information or to attend the event for media purposes, please contact Catherine Kempista at ckempista@thedch.org.
